

TOWN OF EASTON

The Town of Easton is accepting applications for a qualified individual to fill the position of full time Water Treatment Plant Operator for the DPW Water Division, full time, 40 hours per week with a Tuesday through Saturday schedule.

Position Purpose: The position performs skilled technical work in all aspects of water treatment and distribution systems maintenance, with particular focus on enhanced water quality and filter maintenance. The anticipated hiring range is $41.808 – $46.902 per hour DOQ with excellent benefits including municipal pension system.

A full job description including minimum qualifications and required employment application can be found at: www.easton.ma.us/jobs. Employment application is required and applications will be accepted through June 26, 2024.

The Town of Easton is an Equal Opportunity Employer and encourages diverse and talented candidates to apply.